"Adventure: Any experience that alters our perspective enough to see things we have never before seen...or see familiar things as we have never before seen them."

Jeff Salz

Jeff Salz could not have been better for our group! He did all the right things and did a great job of integrating the right language and issues into his message. He is an infectiously enthusiastic speaker who kept the audience for an hour and a quarter that seemed to race by. Our keynote speaker last year was Colin Powell - a tough act to follow. Jeff Salz took no back seat to him!

"Best I've ever heard" was the resounding acclamation following your presentation to our sales leaders! What can I say except "fantastic!"? The reviews are in and American Fidelity gives you a 10+ out of 10! There was a message for everyone who attended. As an illustration of the lasting impression you made, I noticed today that one of the attendees now signs his e-mails by "Be of Service." Simple, yet very powerful.

Amazing, powerful, passionate, entertaining! Jeff took 1200 people deep into Patagonia and across a lake on a Weetabix without leaving the room. Standing at the back of the room with my client and his U.S. boss, both captivated by Jeff's presentation, and turning to me every few minutes saying "thank you, Derek, thank you" is every agent's dream.
