

Bio for Dr. Kristen Nelson

Kristen Nelson, D.V.M. is a noted veterinarian, speaker and author. She grew up on a Minnesota farm then received her Doctorate at the University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Nelson interned at the prestigious Animal Medical Center in New York City. A member of the American Association of Human-Animal Bond Veterinarians, she is frequently quoted in the media. Her credits include USA Today, Ladies' Home Journal, The Los Angeles Times, DisneyFamily.com and numerous radio and television appearances.

Animals Transform Us! That is her central message. A delightful client event speaker she has insightful stories from the animal kingdom. Dr. Nelson's message is; Embrace Animals to Improve Your Life, Love and Health. She relays how her own cat diagnosed her with cancer. She inspires audiences who have been touched by cancer as they laugh alongside her. Animals engender a wide array of medical and emotional benefits to people . . . and the stories are terrific. This presentation also resonates in wellness programs for employees and in collaboration with non-profits for their donors.

Her second presentation; Create Deep Bonds to Grow Your Business addresses leadership, client service and helps us build strong connections with the clients, family members, co-workers and animals in our lives. A business owner, Dr. Nelson leads us to incorporate lessons from animals into strengthening our corporate and personal relationships.

A speaker with broad appeal, a fresh perspective with deeply engaging stories, Dr. Nelson inspires the audience in an unexpected manner to boost your bottom line. She leaves your clients and employees more bonded than ever to your company and brand. Her first book in the series, Coated With Fur: A Vet's Life, provides a look at her triumphs and trials as a young woman owning a clinic. Delightfully told, it affords perspective into what it is like to be a veterinarian.
